

Chapter 2: The Alpha of Faith

COMMUNITY MAP WORKSHEET

INSTRUCTIONS: Use this worksheet to explore and identify local Alpha courses or faith-based groups that align with your interests and spiritual journey. Document the key details of each and reflect on which ones best fit your needs.

Please ensure your responses fit within the text box provided.

1. Personal Reflection. Before researching, take a moment to consider:

What are you looking for in a faith group or Alpha course? (e.g., spiritual growth, connection, understanding Christianity, supportive community)

What type of group suits you best? (e.g., small group, large gathering, online, in-person)

2. Search and Explore. Use online resources, community boards, and personal networks to find local opportunities. Document your findings below:

Group Name	Type (e.g., Alpha Course, Bible Study)	Location/Mtg Format (Online/In-person)	Meeting Times	Contact Info	Notes/Impressions

3. Decision-Making Criteria. Consider the following:

Does the group align with your spiritual goals? Is the meeting time/location feasible for you?

Does the group seem welcoming and supportive?

Other considerations:

4. Reflection and Next Steps

Which group(s) will you try first?

What are your expectations for joining this group?

Next Steps: (e.g., contact organizer, attend a trial session, invite a friend to join)

5. Follow-Up After Joining

What did you enjoy most about the group?

Were there any challenges or concerns?

Do you feel this group supports your faith journey? Why or why not?

6. Any Additional Note/Observations
